

'53 Grads Will Hear Seaton

Former United States Senator Fred A. Seaton will deliver the address at Omaha U's 44th commencement. The exercises will be June 1 in the University stadium. If it is raining, the commencement will be held inside the Fieldhouse.

Seaton is head of a chain of Nebraska and Kansas newspapers at the present time. He served as U. S. senator for one year, filling the interim following the death of Nebraska's Senator Kenneth Wheery.

Well-known in nationwide political circles for many years, publisher Seaton served as secretary to Alfred M. Landon during the 1936 national campaign. He was the manager of Harold Stassen's Nebraska campaign in 1948 and his advisor and administrative assistant during the 1948 campaign.

His political activities also include being an advisor to General Eisenhower during 1952.

Fred A. Seaton will speak at 44th OU commencement.

Staff Receives Annual Proof

"We're done." So said Larry Boersma yesterday. "But now, the staff can begin digging out from underneath the piles of homework—all undone."

The first proofs of the 1953 Tomahawk have been received, corrected and sent back to Minneapolis. The editor said that the printer made some improvements in the book, and the staff is very pleased with the over-all condition of the annual.

Dan Langevin, 1954 editor, will also use the offset process of printing in next year's book.

There are 1,313 photos in the book and 256 pages. "With the padded cover, index and extra coverage of events, we feel that the '53 Tomahawk will be very satisfactory," announced Boersma.

The staff compared this year's book with the Tomahawks of the last two years. The 1952 annual had 192 pages and 852 pictures. The 1951 annual had 209 pages and 1,161 pictures.

Schmidt Extends Senior Fee Limit

Senior President Aksel Schmidt announced that the deadline for payment of senior class fees has been extended indefinitely. "I urge all seniors to pay the $5.50," said Schmidt. "We can't have a successful dinner-dance if they don't pay."

Don Fitch, senior vice-president, is in charge of contacting a speaker for the dinner.

Plans for decorations, programs and favors for the dinner-dance will be set up after all the fees are paid and a definite budget can be organized.

Seniors may begin paying the $10 fee for cap, gown and diploma at any time in the business office. Some seniors have already paid this fee. About 205 June grads have filed for their degrees in the Registrar's office. Any senior who has not done this yet should contact the Registrar.

Dean to Visit Here

Dr. Ernest O. Melby, who is Dean of Teachers College at New York University, New York, will visit OU Tuesday, Apr. 28.

A luncheon for Dr. Melby will be held at noon. He will be guest speaker at a dinner given by the Omaha Education Association that night.

Any graduating senior woman is eligible for the Ma-le Day Princess honor. The all-school election will be April 29.

Committee to Design Student Union Plans

Members of the Student Union committee are now designing a Student Union Building.

This job was assumed at the meeting Tuesday afternoon. Each member who wants to will design his suggested plan for the Union building, including all the facilities desired in the building.

The reason for this undertaking is to give architect John Latenser written ideas for the building. "The plans, as they stand now, resemble a grade school building. It is not geared to take care of our requirements," said Jack Adwers, committee member.

The members feel that if Latenser knows both the faculty and student views on room arrangement, food services, and recreation facilities, he will be able to design a more acceptable building.

The plans are due Apr. 24. The committee will then meet and compile the suggestions.

Ohio Wesleyan is all up in arms because a recent poll of two women's dormitories showed 387 of the total of 611 women had no dates on Saturday night. The male editor of the school's paper is lamenting the apparent lapse of the traditional one to one ratio at the school.

Dancers Will Present 'Pulse' Interpretation

The "Pulse" of the nation will be interpreted by 12 coed modern dancers tomorrow night. Members of Orchesis will feature the undertones of life in various sections of our country in the second annual Spring Concert.

The program will begin at 8:15. Activity card will admit students. Admission for non-students is 75 cents and children under 12 years, 25 cents. Tickets may be purchased

Two Coeds Split Wins At Tourney

Two OU coeds returned from the Pi Kappa Delta National Convention and Forensic Tournament with a four win-four loss record. Jean Bednar and Sharon Erdkamp represented the University in the national meet at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Miss Erdkamp and Miss Bednar defeated teams from Huron College, Heidelberg College, Wheaton and Mississippi State College. They were defeated by teams from St. Olaf College, Eau Claire College, Bradley and Luther College.

Miss Erdkamp entered discussion and received a "Good" rating for her participation. Fifty-three women's teams entered the competition. Over 500 students from 123 colleges and universities participated in the biennial convention and tournament. The forensic meet included debate, discussion, extemporane and oratory.

The convention was held from April 5 to 9.

OU Prof Set For TV Stint

Dr. Wilfred Payne is getting set for his third stint on television. From Apr. 27 to June 5, the professor of humanities and philosophy will talk to members of the TV Classroom on "What Classical Man Thought."

The topic is a study of the past with the philosophy of Democritus, explaining science, and the philosophy of Plato, which explains religion and literature.

The TV Classroom is now on from 2:30 to 2:45 p. m. Monday through Friday, over station KMTV.

Dr. Payne's first TV performance was the "Six Views of Life," Apr. 28 to June 6 of 1952, and "What Modern Man Believes," Jan. 5 to Feb. 13 of 1953.

Orchesis dancers Jean Janzen and Jane Englehardt "fly high" through the air in preparation for tomorrow's concert.

today from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the box office.

"Variety of Dances"

Dance numbers include the following: "Grand Canyon Sun" with Joan Olsen, Ruth Waschinek, Pat Vorel; "Dance, Partner Dance" with Laura Dopita, Laya Edgar, Jane Engelhardt and Miss Olse; and "Sunset" with Miss Waschinek, Sue Yetter, Jean Janzen and Pat Kavan.

Other dances and participants are "Contrast" with Misses Dopita, Engelhardt, Waschinek, and Kavan; "Waterfront Cafe" with Pat Cosford and Misses Janzan, Dopita, Olsen, Vorel, Yetter, and Coleman.

Miss Edgar and Miss Janzen will dance the "Chinese Duet." "Cocktail Party" will feature the Misses Dopita, Janzan, Waschinek, Olsen, Coleman, Vorel and Kavan.

Two Soloists

There will be two solo dances in the program. Bonnie Coleman, Orchesis president, will dance "Reflections." Jean Janzan will solo in "Negro Spiritual."

The final number will be "Manhattan Tower." It will be the interpretation by all 12 dancers of a month's sojourn in New York City.

The show is sponsored by the Women's Physical Education Department. Miss Vera Duerschner and Miss Mary Lou Niebling, instructors, will direct the modern dance concert.

Original Choreography Theme of Orchesis

Interest in the interpretations of modern dance moods has resulted in the reactivation of Orchesis, national modern dance group, on the campus.

The chapter was reactivated in the 1950-51 school year under the direction of Mrs. Irma Lou Wilcox. Beginning with seven charter members, the group has expanded membership each year and this year has 12 active and 9 inactive members.

Greek Word

The word "Orchesis" is taken from the Greeks. It describes the outdoor coliseum where the Greeks held all public events. The arena was circular and was used for musical concerts as well as bull-fights.

This year the girls have appeared in concerts at Midland College in Fremont, danced on a television program and took part in halftime ceremonies of OU's home football games.

Own Choreography

Each year, the organization presents a spring concert of interpretative dancing. The entire program is original. The girls originate ideas, pick out appropriate music and then arrange the choreography. This year's program was written by Orchesis members Jane Engelhardt, Jean Janzan, Joan Olsen, Pat Vorel and Laura Dopita.

The members have a regular Orchesis outfit which all the girls buy. The costumes are called leotards. They wear a maroon leotard for practice and wear black leotards for dance performances.

OUI Affiliation

The group is under the direction of the OUI. Miss Mary Lou Niebling is present director and sponsor of the group. Miss Niebling took over this year from Mrs. Wilcox, group sponsor the first two years.

The group will sponsor its annual concert in the auditorium tomorrow night. The program is entitled "Pulse," and is designed to follow the beat of life. Highlight of the program will be an interpretation of a month's sojourn in New York City.

Orchesis officers for this year are Bonnie Coleman, president, Joan Olsen, secretary, and Derelle Blumer, publicity.

Out With Girls!

Girls seem to cause an uproar no matter in what part of the country you're in.

Even in Texas, the gals have the state senate and Texas A and M College in a dither. It seems that the Texas state senate passed a resolution to make the school co-educational after it had been an all-male school to 75 years.

The Texas A & M president stated that there must be a place in the Texas higher educational

Spring

Mother Nature overrates as far as I can see,

The old gal never has done one good thing for me.

In "lovely winter wonderland" she gives me snow "that" deep—

I'd have to be a kangaroo to clear drifts in a leap.

The hot, sweet days of summer, polluted with the flies—

The cool breeze just escapes me and the hot air on me lies.

The winy, crisp autumn brings the leaves stacked up to "here" I start in raking in the fall and can keep it up all year.

But spring is truly overdone in tender shades of green—

That entice me into exercise and make my muscles scream—

No matter where I touch myself I'm bound to holler "ouch"—

The only spring I want right now is the spring in a soft couch.

Nation Spends Money on Dogs

Financially speaking, education over the United States has to take a back seat.

This nation actually spends five times as much every year on dog food as it does on college textbooks for its youth.

The $500,000,000 spent for hunting and fishing hobbies amounts to over twelve times more money than is spent for college textbooks.

Another surprising fact is that of the total dollars spent for education, less than one penny is spent for textbooks.

It's surprising that so much of the United States still prides its dogs and hobbies above textbooks and higher education.

system for a strong technical senior college for men only.

The alumni raved that the move would ruin the school. They hastened to add that although the school spirit might decline, they thought the extra-curricular activities would be "interesting." When a reporter asked the alumni if the sight of coeds in the school cheering section wouldn't inspire the team, the alum snapped back that "we can yell all right without any girls to lead us."

Survey Shows Accident Toll Continues Rise

"Who, Me?", a traffic accident data booklet sent out by a Hartford, Conn., insurance company, has revealed that there were more than two million "yes, you's," recorded in 1952. Last year's traffic deaths totaled over 37,000 while the injury count soared to 2,090,000.

The company's statisticians collect and analyze accident facts from each state. According to these figures, last year's total was the worst automobile accident toll in the nation's history.

The most dangerous mistake in driving was excessive speed. Although drivers under 25 years of age constitute only about 15 per cent of the total of all drivers, they were involved in almost 25 per cent of the year's fatal accidents.

More than 15,000 persons were killed and nearly 750,000 injured in weekend crashes. Forty per cent of the deaths and 36 per cent of the injuries occurred on Saturdays and Sundays last year.

The bright spot in the report was the pedestrian record. Pedestrian casualties were reduced by more than eight per cent in 1952. Yet, crossing between intersections, "jay walking," still is the chief cause of pedestrian deaths and injuries.

Some other facts brought out by "Who, Me?" were that three out of four 1952 auto accidents happened to passenger cars driving in clear weather on dry roads. And 80 per cent of vehicles involved in fatal accidents were travelling straight ahead.

The most dangerous day of the week to drive was Saturday. And even more grim was the final statement which said that 1952 was the third consecutive year of increase in the death toll for the nation.

Creighton Takes Decorated Cake

Creighton University walked off with the cake last Wednesday.

In conjunction with Creighton's 75th Jubilee held this week, the Student Council, on behalf of the students of Omaha University, presented a three-tiered decorated cake to the Creighton students.

The cake was baked and decorated in the Home Ec lab by students Jane Powell, Virginia Macoubrie and Marian Ann Walker. Miss Margaret Killian was in charge of layer supervision.

The cake was presented Wednesday evening at the Creighton Jubilee dance by Derelle Blumer, chairman of the project, to Student Board of Governors head, Jim Merriman.

The cake was decorated in white, silver and blue. It was covered with flowers and leaves. The cake was topped with 75 candles.

In the center of the cake was a large plastic diamond. The diamond was cut and hand shaped by Jerry Tannahill. Tannahill is probably one of the first diamond cutters on the campus.

CU Parade Brings Worry, Headaches

You've heard of infamous "on-again, off-again, Finnegan."

Omaha University has its own version—complete with ulcers, droplets of sweat and so on.

And all because of the Creighton University parade that was "on-again, off-again and so on." Tuesday, the Omaha U marching band was asked to strut their stuff with the Bluejays on parade through downtown Omaha Wednesday.

Later Tuesday, Dr. Robert Fieser, band director, learned to his consternation many of his bandsters sing in the University's choir which was scheduled to sing before the Rotary Club, meeting at OU Wednesday.

So each of the band members were called and informed of the cancellation. So were the Creightonians.

But Wednesday, snow canceled the parade. The parade, by the way, was a sort of "consolation" for the Bluejays Homecoming parade scheduled earlier this year and called on account of rain.

Wednesday, word reached OU that the parade was rescheduled for Thursday. Dr. Fieser informed him that oodles of tests were scheduled for Thursday. "We'll not march," they chorused.

No Need to Gripe

The students of Omaha University don't need to gripe about the parking situation. Because they have brought it on themselves. How many students think about the other fellow when they block the entrance to the back parking lot? How many students think about the other fellow when they use two parking spaces instead of one?

The members of the Prexy Association at the University asked Jack Adwers and his staff to ticket all the violators. What good will it do when the students don't have enough common courtesy to think about the next driver who may come into the lot.

Maybe if the policeman would begin ticketing some of the drivers who block entrances and use more space than they need the parking situation would improve.

And maybe if the "guides" who direct the cars at 8 a. m. would count the parking spaces a little more carefully before waving drivers on, there would be less torn up grass and fewer smashed fenders.

Congratulations

We congratulate Creighton University on its Diamond Anniversary this week.

The Creighton faculty and student body can be proud of the background of 75 years of tradition and fine education. Omaha University is looking forward to many more years of friendly association with Creighton, not only in activities, but in the task to which both Universities are dedicated—inspiring the minds of men and women toward the ideals of the educated.

The Angels Come Down to Earth . . .

Angels Drill Squad Will Perform Tonight With Wilke Commanding

Blindfolded Leader Will Provide Challenge For ROTC Cadet Parade

The Angels' Flight Drill Squad will turn their military charm on for the spectators at the Armed Forces Tourney tonight. The games will be in the Fieldhouse, and the Angels will perform at the halftime.

The Angels' have been practicing at 7 a. m. every morning in preparation for tonight. Flight Leader Phyllis Wilke who is the "shouting" commander of the feminine squad will direct the marching blindfold as one phase of the performance.

Sixth Sense

She will be blindfolded, the Angels will begin marching and Miss Wilke will call cadence, directing the formations from memory and "sixth" sense. Said the Leader, "I hope I don't march them off the basketball floor."

The Drill Squad will also perform at the AF-ROTC Annual Inspection, Apr. 27 and 28. They will watch the cadets pass in review, and then they will pass in review. This last military duty will close ROTC activities for the year.

Squad Has 16 Members

Aviatrix Well Attend

Major Robert Whaley, AF-ROTC staff, has announced that many prominent guests will attend the Military Ball next week.

Major Whaley said that General LeMay will speak to the nation over the broadcast at the Ball. He will cite the significance of the ROTC program in the Universities, and take part in the intermission ceremonies.

Flying from Cleveland, Ohio, for the Ball will be Arlene Davis, aviation's Woman of the Year. Mrs. Davis is the international vice-president of the Ninety-nine's, international organization of licensed woman pilots, National Advisor of Wing Scouts, and the only woman on the Board of Directors of the National Aeronautical Association.

In 1934 she won the first all-woman's air race in the world. In addition to this, Mrs. Davis was the first woman to receive a multirating from the US Government and the first private pilot to receive an instrument rating to fly blind in 1937.

Taught Men

In 1943 she taught instrument flying in flight to Army men stationed on the Baldwin-Wallace college campus.

In answering the invitation sent her by Major Whaley, Mrs. Davis said, "I will be most interested to meet the lovely members of the Angels' Flight. It sounds like a fairy tale, and is indeed a unique organization. It makes me very happy to learn the Air Force has found a place for air-minded co-eds. Their usefulness in Aviation is unlimited."

'53 Grads Take Home Ec Jobs

Mrs. Jo Schleiger, the former Jo Strobel, and Joan Clawson, both 1953 January graduates are employed by the Omaha Public Power District. They will be Home service agents and assist in the Electric Kitchen with the cooking and freezer schools.

The two were Omaha U. home ec majors.

Few people have sense enough to appreciate constructive criticism.

"Madwoman" Cast Gives Top Performance of Year

By Mary Ann Conley

With the production of "Madwoman of Chaillot" the University Players and Dr. Edwin L. Clark topped a season of fine dramatic presentations with one of the best plays ever presented on the Omaha University stage.

A description of the play would necessitate dragging out all the superlatives. Many of these superlatives should be applied to the performance of Leonore Marx as Countess Aurelia, the Madwoman.

From her first appearance until her final speech she "had" her audience. A professional handling of her role was responsible for this adoration. Her change of pace, her ability to be angry one minute and subdued the next, as befits a Madwoman, brought spontaneous applause from the audience in the midst of the show. The curtain calls at the close of the show weren't a matter of courtesy on the part of the audience. They indicated approval of a job well done.

The cast of 37 added to the quality performance. Anita Rez-nichak as Mme. Constance, Marcia Morris as Mlle. Gabrielle, and Pat Norman as Mme. Josephine were amusing and convincing and deserve a share of the superlatives.

Another share should go to Tom Burke as The Raggpicker. The role required ability and Burke filled the bill.

Wayne Goettsch and Sally Ren-na as Pierre and Irma were appealing as the young couple who come under the benevolent protection of the Countess.

Eugene Anderson, Charles Play and Dick Palmquist were sinister with Jack Frost adding to the evil effect. The gendarmes were capably performed by Harry Johnson and John Mitchell.

The assorted collection of characters who added to the charm of Chaillot included William Pearson, Val Kuffel, Mary Little, Ann McTaggart, Sam Marasco, Larry Boersma and Don McKeen.

Add to this list, Dean Short, a street juggler; Phil Abramson, a retired foot doctor; Jerry Norene, a doorman who spent five years looking for a boa, and Gary Anderson, who garnered his share of laughs as the Sewer-Man.

Honor Thorson designed the cafe set used in the first act. Lighting was designed by Ray Hovendick.

Dr. Clark also deserves superlatives. The success of the play is a tribute to his fine direction.

Cindermen Defeat Washburn 76-54

OU Scores First Post-War Victory

Varsity trackmen won their second home outdoor meet of the season and finally turned back Washburn last Tuesday 76-54. It was the first victory over the Ichabods in the post-war history of the two schools.

Washburn monopolized the field events as they placed first and second in the high-jump, first and second in the broadjump, first and second in the pole vault and second and third in the javelin.

But the traveling squad didn't have the depth to win in the track competition. The outdoor events, which were held in a gusty wind and a constant drizzle, provided the Indians with enough points to offset the earlier loss.

Wayne Larsen knocked a tenth of a second off a six-year-old track mark as he ran the 440 yd. dash in the sloppy track in :52 flat. Bob Gerdeman placed a close second in the event and turned around to cop the 220 yd. low hurdles over highly touted Lloyd Mairs of Washburn in :26.1.

The injury riddled Omaha crew placed seven firsts out of nine events to further spread the point margin. Jerry Tannahill, veteran broad jumper and sprinter, suffered a probable split muscle in his thigh. The injury might keep Jerry off the track for the rest of the season.

Bill Barnes was the other cripple who couldn't enter last Tuesday. The number one hurdler had a stretched groin muscle which didn't heal fast enough to permit his entering the races.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was Buster Reeves of Washburn and his record setting 11 ft. 9 1/2 in. vault. His effort surpassed by four inches the old mark set by Burkes of Washburn in 1949.

The easiest win for Omaha was the two mile run. Washburn didn't enter, and Mel Decker won easily over his teammates Chuck Dresher and Lowell Huber. Joe Nalty won as was expected in both the century and the 220 yd. dash. His times were surprisingly good for the wet track at :10.2 and :23.3.

Bernie Lainsom came from 20 yards behind to win at the tape in the mile over Garland Richardson. He skipped the half in favor of the record breaking mile relay quartette. The foursome won by 40 yards over the Ichabods.

Coach Ernie Gorr was pleased with the display put on by his boys. "Everyone is showing improvement and that is the important sign of advancement."

Trackmen Travel To Indianola, Ia.

Varsity Cindermen will travel to Iowa Saturday to participate in the Iowa Teachers relays at Cedar Falls. Coach Ernie Gorr plans on taking ten to 15 men for the meet.

Next Tuesday the squad will travel to Indianola, Ia., to compete against Simpson in a dual. The entire squad will go on the trip and the added depth should be a determining factor.

OUWI Sponsors Annual Play Day

Omaha University Women's Intramural organization sponsored annual Play Day for about one hundred girls from Omaha and Council Bluffs public high schools last Saturday.

Team sports were played in the morning. The girls played volleyball, cageball and basketball under the direction of Miss Margaret Baumann and Miss Vera Duerchner, OUWI sponsors.

Individual participation in bowling, tennis, archery and bicycling filled the afternoon schedule.

Intramural Activities Postponed by Rain; Golf Matches Posted on Fieldhouse Board

Rain, snow and cold weather interrupted the opening week of the Intramural softball season. All games that were postponed will be rescheduled and played later. Teams entered in the league will play a single round robin season. Intramural Director Ernie Gorr requests that the managers of the winning teams report the score of each contest. The score must be written on a piece of paper and signed by both managers.

Pairings for Intramural golf matches are posted on the bulletin board in the Fieldhouse. Each contestant should consult the board, get together with his opponent and set a date for the match. Because of the large number of entries, Gorr has prepared a schedule which must be followed so a champion can be determined.

The Schedule:
1st round .....finished by Apr. 24
2nd round .....finished by May 1
3rd round .....finished by May 8
Finals .....played off by May 15
The tennis setup is just about

Indian Golfers Beat Midland, Lose to NU

Omaha University's golf team took an easy victory at Midland College's expense Apr. 10 on the Happy Hollow course.

Dean Wilson led the 24 1/2-4 1/2 win by shooting a 77, five over par. All of the Omaha team except Fred Shinrock scored victories. Shinrock netted a tie, while Jerry Norene and Archie Templeton scored easy victories.

The University of Nebraska's golf team rolled to a decisive 9 1/2 to 2 1/2 victory over the Omaha squad Apr. 11 at the Hill Crest course in Lincoln.

Irv Peterson jolted the Indians' hopes by handing Dean Wilson a thorough 3-0 defeat. Jerry Norene dropped a 2 1/2 to 1/2 decision, and Archie Templeton did the same. Fred Shinrock was the only Omaha to come home without a loss. He netted a tie with Roger Gohde 1 apiece.

Last year the two teams battled to one victory apiece. The second match will be played here sometime in May.

Omaha played host to the Washburn College golf team Apr. 14 at Happy Hollow. The Indian golfer took every single match from the Kansas crew, racking up a 17 1/2-2 1/2 win. Dean Wilson again was the leading man for the Indians. He shot a 77, and Jerry Norene was close behind with a 79. Fred Shinrock and Archie Templeton also hung up handy victories. It was the second OU win in three starts this year.

Diamond Crew Downs Drake 6-5 April 13

Baseball Team Plays Simpson

Today the Indian nine will try to make it two straight over Simpson College as they tackle the Iowans at Fontenelle Park.

In the first fray the Yelkin crew downed the Simpsonites 7-1 behind the brilliant five-hit pitching of Bob Offerjost and Dick Davis.

Next week the Redmen will play host to Iowa State Teachers College for two games. On Thursday they will meet the Iowans in Muny Stadium for a night game, and on Friday the two clubs will tangle in an afternoon contest.

The Panthers from Cedar Falls compiled an eight won, six lost record for the 1952 season.

On the mound the Iowans appear to be the strongest where they have two mound aces returning for another season.

Leading the staff will be Rod Tangeman, who was undefeated last season when he compiled a 4-0 record. Behind Tangeman is Dick Koch, a lefty, who was top reliever last season and is slated to draw starting nods this year.

Tennis Team Defeats NU, Midland College

Omaha University's tennis team rolled to two straight victories against Nebraska U and Midland College.

On Apr. 11 the OU team played at Lincoln against Nebraska. Don Blocker was the only Omahan to lose a match. He dropped two out of three sets to tough Warren Andrews. Tom Burke, Carl Carlson, Brendon Gallagher and Dale Womer all took two straight from their opponents.

On Apr. 13 Midland College was blanked 7-0 by the OU team. The singles team composed of Blocker, Burke, Carlson, Gallagher and Womer took two straight from all of their opponents.

The doubles team of Burke and Blocker, and Carlson and Gallagher also swept easy victories.

Indians Retaliate After Slow Start

Four consecutive errors, a passed ball, and a fluke double just about prevented the University of Omaha from scoring their second straight victory of the season.

OU played host to Drake University at Fontenelle Park Monday, and the Indians blew a 2-1 lead in the top of the ninth inning, and fell three runs behind.

But the Omaha squad was determined to give Dick Davis, OU hurler, a win after his brilliant five hit effort. They quickly went to work on Roger Putterbaugh, Drake pitcher, who up to the ninth inning had only given up three hits.

With the bases loaded Bill Duffack lined a single to leftfield. Two runs scored on the smash, and the third scored on a wild throw to third base.

So Dick Davis wound up with his first victory of the season, and the OU squad had racked up their second victory in a row 6-5.

The Indians fell behind early in the first inning, as Drake pushed across a run. But Bugs Redden started the Indians on a warpath by slamming a double to left center. Maseman walked, and later scored on Don Claussen's infield single. Redden had previously scored on Lee Nelson's ground out.

The game rolled right along with the Indians holding a slim one run lead until the confusing ninth. Then Redden, John Wiren, Don Maseman and Don Hansen booted the ball. But the Omaha team wouldn't play dead. They showed OU fans that they can give and take with the best of their opponents.

Pi Kap's To Hold Dad's Day Party

Members of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity will honor their fathers at Dad's Day Apr. 19. Fathers and sons will meet at Elmwood Park at 3 p. m.

A softball game, movies of the 1952 football season, and a talk on fraternity life by Duane Post, president of Pi Kappa Alpha, will highlight the afternoon. A display booth will also be featured.

Golfer Dean Wilson Sparks Indian Team; Holds District, State Honors

By Don Digilio

Call it the University of Omaha often is hidden behind such headline sports as baseball and track. This unsung sport deserves to be brought out into the open. One of the best ways to mention the name of Dean Wilson.

Dean is a sophomore at the University. He was one of the leading golfers on the OU team last year, losing only four out of 17 matches.

Dean did not come to Omaha until his senior year in high school. He attended Central High and he quickly landed a position on the golf team.

Ties in State Meet
With Central he played on a State Championship team. His individual effort netted him a tie for first place in the State Meet. Wilson also holds championships in Missouri Valley and Nebraska City.

His greatest thrill came last summer. He beat Stan Bednarz, defending City Champion in the preliminaries of the City Golf tournament. His greatest games were played at Indian Hills and Dodge Park. On the Dodge course he fired a 68; four under par. At Indian Hills he shot a 68, three under par.

Father Taught All

Dean was taught to play golf by his father, who at one time held a City Championship.

OU golf foes have three more years to bear with talented Dean. At 19 years he is considered one of the best golfers in Omaha. The wise golf fan will follow Wilson, for he should have a long and bright future ahead of him.

Sig Eps Lead With 1,055 Points

OU Trackmen Take Second In Dakota Meet with 59 1/2

Omaha University trackmen placed second in the South Dakota Invitational track meet last Saturday. The score was South Dakota 78 1/2, OU 59 1/2, and Wayne 40. Eleven schools were competing for honors.

Three of the six new records were copied by the Indians' and they landed seven of the 16 first places. Snowy weather failed to hamper operations and all of the events had good times.

New Records Made

Some of the newly written records for Omaha were Joe Nalty's 22 second 220 yard dash, Bill Barnes and his :25.3 time in the high hurdles and the mile relay team composed of Bernie Lainsom, Bob Barnes, Wayne Larsen, and Bob Gerdeman which clipped off a 3:27.6 mile. This took over two seconds off the former record. A breakdown shows that this time could be achieved with four 51.3 second 440 yard dashes.

Petersen Batters Record

The two mile run, which was won by Petersen, was the highlight of an afternoon of running. He bettered the old record which he set last year. His time was 10 minutes, 12 seconds.

Another record to fall was the 880 yard run. Friar of Yankton ran far ahead of the pack to win the event in 2:00.8. Some opposition was given to the scoring system which gave five points for first place and four, three, two and one for the other places. Some felt that no premium was given for a first place winner and since most teams had to send up only their small traveling squad, no depth could be expected from any but the home team.

Gerdeman Breaks Record

Bob Gerdeman broke the OU record for the 440 yard dash in :51.6, and in the field events, Larry Johnson won the only first place in the shotput. Jerry Tannahill didn't come up to par in the snowy weather and failed to win the broadjump. Roger Dunbier placed second to Tays, of USD.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"LISTEN, BIRD-BRAIN, don't get soar, but I cooed never love you," said Sheedy's little chickadee. "Your hair's strictly for the birds! Better remember the tree cardinal rules for social success so you won't be an also-wren. 1. Hop to a toilet goods counter. 2. Peck up a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hair. Relieves dryness. Removes goose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. 3. Use it daily and people will love you." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil for himself and a diamond wing for his tweetie-pie. Better buy a bottle or tube today. Or ask for it at your barber's. If you don't you're cookoo!

Trackmen Hike 80 Miles by Thumb As Bus Stalls on Way to Meet

By Larry Means

Varsity trackmen almost missed the meet last Saturday. The chartered bus conked out close to Onawa, Ia., and the only transportation for the next 80 miles was by thumb.

Coach Ernie Gorr gave consent to his charges in an attempt to have at least a partial representation at the track meet. The two earliest hitch-hikers were hurdler Bill Barnes and Sprinter Joe Nalty.

The twosome jumped out of the stalled bus, grabbed their gear and received a ride within ten minutes. Luck ran with them and they rode to Vermillion in style with the president of Wayne College.

Their actions before the meet were practically as speedy as the meet itself. They arrived just as the first flight of prelims in the hurdles were being run. Nalty jumped the fence and halted the proceedings while Bill stepped inside the gymnasium and changed clothes.

More Troubles

Roger Dunbier provided the humor of the situation when he was hitch-hiking with teammates Jerry Tannahill, Bob Rose and Larry Means. Their first contact was a salesman who within two miles after picking up the quartette, received a ticket from the State Patrol for not having a driver's license.

Tannahill Hears Talk

His good humor was obviously shrouded because of his bad fortune with the police, but he tried his best to sell Tannahill a hearing aid.

The whole thing came to an end as Roger politely informed the salesman that Jerry wasn't deaf. Soon the boys were looking for their next ride.

Their next victim was a preacher. No one knew this at the start of the trip but amid slanderous remarks about the Iowa police force, someone found out the driver was a minister making his rounds.

Garrett Recites

The next five miles were devoted, keeping Dunbier on the sanctified side of slang. The preacher was obviously one of a forgiving nature for as they were leaving his car he blessed "all of you" and wished them good luck in the track meet.

On the return trip La Rue Garrett recited passages from the Hairy Ape. Half way home he misplaced his shoe and from there on in, a noble effort by Garrett and his "helpers" failed to turn up the missing article.

As the team entered Council Bluffs, Coach Gorr stood up, quieted the boys and complimented them on the track meet. He told them of next week's workouts and said he thought the team was improving. Seniors Larry Johnson and Joe Nalty commented on the spirit of the team and their "pride of belonging to such a great bunch of guys." The sobering ceremony was brought to a climax by Garrett with "Come on, you guys, where's my shoe."

OU Grads Publish In National Mags

Two graduates of the University had pieces published in national magazines this month. Phoebe Lowe, '49, wrote of her experiences as a department store Easter bunny.

"I Was an Easter Bunny" from

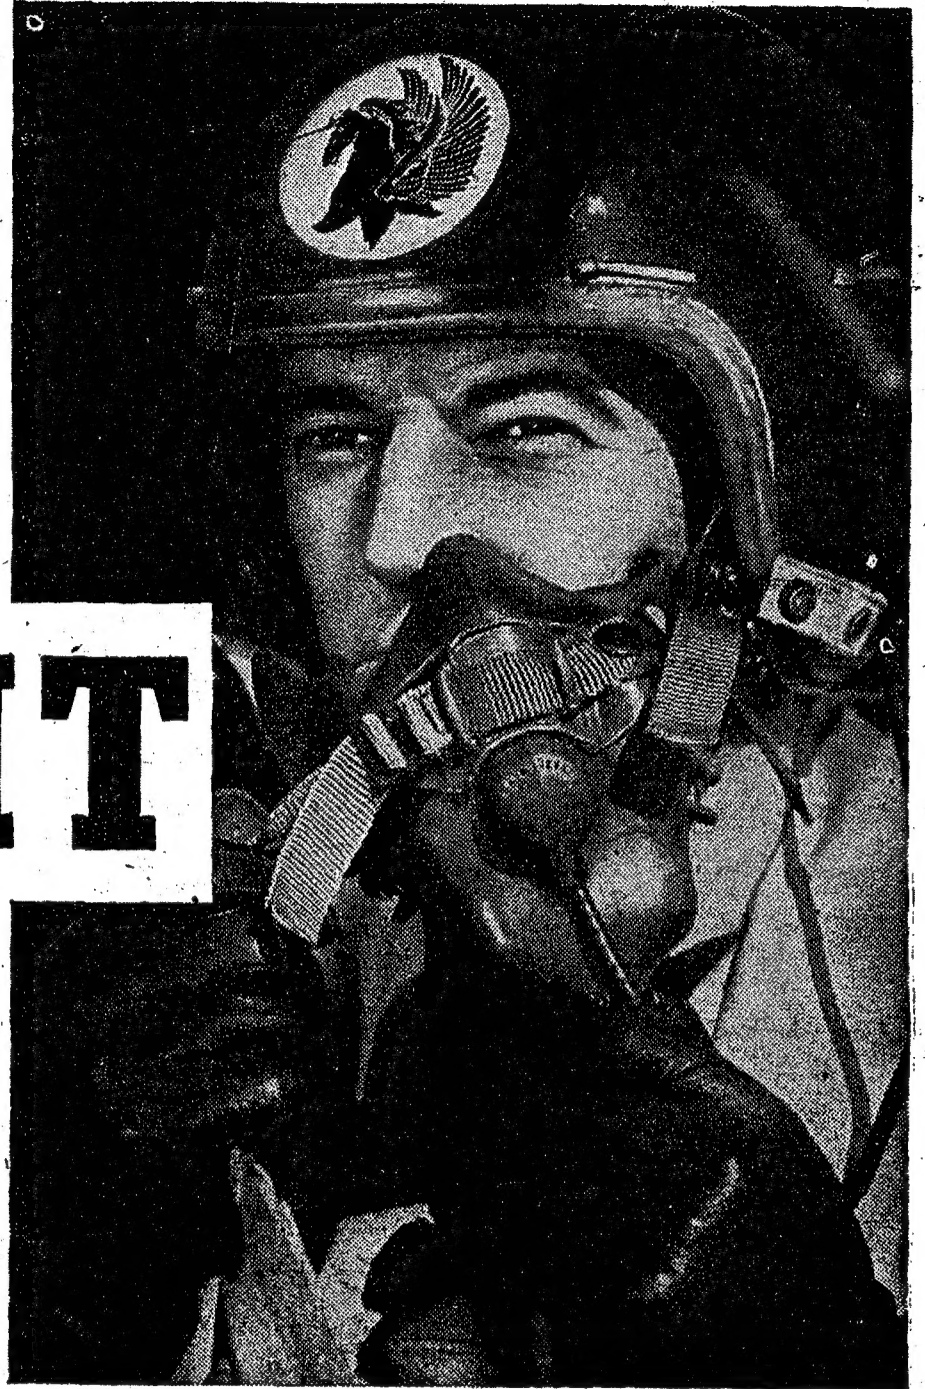

The "Atlantic Monthly" was posted earlier in the month on the news bulletin board opposite the registrar's office.

"The Earth's Electricity" was the name of the article by James E. McDonald, '44. McDonald is the assistant professor of physics at Iowa State College. After graduating at Omaha U., McDonald attended M.I.T. and got his Ph.D. in physics at Iowa State.

It's the size of the FIGHT in the man!

That's right! In the U. S. Air Force, it's not the size of the man in the fight—it's the size of the FIGHT IN THE MAN! And Aviation Cadets must have plenty of it. For Cadet training is rugged. If you're good enough . . . tough enough . . . smart enough . . . if you can take it while you're learning to dish it out, you can have one of the most fascinating careers in the world. You'll be equipped to fly the latest, hottest planes. You'll be prepared to take your position as an executive, both in military and commercial aviation as well as in industry. And while you're helping yourself you'll be helping your country.

WIN YOUR WINGS! It takes little over a year to win your wings as a Pilot or Aircraft Observer (Navigator, Bombardier, Radar Operator or Aircraft Performance Engineer). But at the end of your training you graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will give you a physical examination.
3. Next, you take a written and manual aptitude test.

4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Spring and Summer Cottons Both Dressy and Practical

With spring fashions being shown everywhere, the cotton dresses are beginning to appear. Every girl has a few cottons to wear, but every young lady would always like a few more. Here are some hints on the styles you might look for this year.

Cotton dresses this year are going to be more dressy than in the past. Sundress types with bolero tops will be seen at school and work, as well as dressed up with jewelry at the dances. The bolero tops are not long this year, but cut very high in back and front, just enough to cover the bare shoulders. Scalloped necklines, rhinestone-centered buttons and velveteen belts make these cool dresses good wearing for dates.

Cool Cottons
A wonderful combination for summer are cotton fabrics made by houses like Dan River. These dresses are usually cap-sleeved with the conventional Peter Pan collar. In the last three years the trend has been toward making sweaters to go with the dresses in colors to highlight the dress color. This year, the sweaters are also trimmed on the sleeves and the front band with material of the dress.

Of course there is always the old standby "golfer." Made for work as well as play, the "golfer" usually has deep wide pockets, slit, easy action sleeves and the fly front skirt. No "golfer" is complete without the elastic belt.

Convenient Skirt
Large skirts on dresses this year will feature the unpressed pleats. The dresses usually have skirts split down the front to make the convenient step-in style. Nothing is more handy on a warm day to put on a dress without messing your hair.

But cotton isn't the only summer material. The cottons are probably the favorites, but linen, denim, poplin and rayon combinations will also keep the fashionable women cool and smart this summer.

Council Plans Third Dance

Attention, all students . . . An all-school dance will be held Wednesday in the auditorium.

Sponsored by the Student Council, the dances have been held monthly for the last three months. Jack Irwin will direct the all-school dance band from 3 to 5 p. m.

Pat Cosford, chairman of the dance, urged all students to attend. "The students seem to enjoy the band's playing and we feel that more students would have a good time if they would only come into the auditorium to listen or dance for awhile."

The project started by the Council this year will be continued next year if the student turnout is good enough to make it worthwhile.

Pi Gamma Mu Holds Discussion

A panel discussion highlighted the meeting of Pi Gamma Mu, honorary social science fraternity last week.

Heading the panel was Paul Beck, history instructor. Students on the panel were Jim Townsend and Bob Jones. The panel's topic was "Lenin of Russia."

Isn't it rather strange that your grandfather should be seriously ill every time there's a big football game on?

Front and Center . . . Colonel Cross

The Navy's customary knack for placing people in positions for which they have been trained caused the Navy to lose Roger Cross to the Air Force. Roger, who had taken the "professional chef" course at Technical High School, entered the Navy expecting to become a cook on a submarine and was assigned to fixing guns in an airplane.

It was the Navy's loss and the Air Force's gain. Roger, a cadet colonel, serves as wing commander of OU's AF-ROTC unit. He will act as Commander of the troops for the Federal inspection.

Sociology Major

Roger hasn't decided whether he wants to make the Air Force his career. He is a senior majoring in Sociology, and would like to get a Master's and Doctor's degree "later on."

Roger served in the Navy for 40 months, 25 which he spent in the Panama Canal Zone. While in that area, he flew air sea rescue missions and was once marooned on a sand bar for five days. None suffered from starvation, however; they survived on lobster, sea food and green peas.

Roger is a member of Theta Chi fraternity, and has served as pledge master and president. He was vice-president of the Sociology Club and belong to Group Dynamics.

Ambitious Chef

Although Roger wanted to become a chef, he has given up the cooking job to his wife, Ruth. He is always pleased when he is served fried chicken and strawberry shortcake, his favorite dishes.

Roger is the father of a baby boy, Raymond Lester. "Little Cross" is 6 weeks old, and getting "bigger and bigger."

Ruth literally fell for Rog. Both were students at Tech, and while Roger was catching forty winks before class, with his legs stretched out in front of him, Ruth came tripping along and fell over him. They started dating and were married after she graduated from OU.

Steady Worker

Roger has held approximately twenty jobs while attending OU. Right now he is working as a substitute postman.

He feels that "if students and administration grow in spirit and enthusiasm along with plans for growth of the school, OU will, in five or ten years, be the best school in this part of the country." . . . Pat.

Lights Out, Students Wander Halls in Dark

"Button, button, who's got the button?" was changed to "Candle, candle, who's got a candle?" Wednesday morning. Lights in the Shack and main building went out before school started and were out during 8 o'clock classes.

Rumor has it that Charles Hoff lost the light bill Tuesday night. Persons without candles took up chain smoking during the blackout. The unfortunates who don't smoke were forced to cling to the wall going down the halls.

This proved to be interesting as other non-smokers were leaning against the walls. Boys who usually get their weekend dates on Wednesday were in the dark as to their weekend romance.

Some of the girls who tired of all the commotion in the halls wound up in the wrong rest rooms.

In true Bohemian style, the cooks were using candles to prepare the noon lunch. This explained why some of the mayonnaise tasted like tallow.

With the entire lower hall resembling a French rendezvous, the book store worked by two candle power. Bookstore attendants took on an eerie appearance.

Honors Speaker Muzumdar Bring India Culture to OU

"Good looking, and an effective speaker easily understood." According to Dean Jay MacGregor, this describes Dr. Haridas T. Muzumdar, world educated speaker and present professor of sociology and social work at Cornell College in Iowa.

Dr. Muzumdar will be guest speaker at OU's annual Honors convocation in the auditorium Wednesday morning.

Born in India

Born in Vyara, India, and graduated from Union High School in Surat, Dr. Muzumdar attended Bombay University for two years. He came to the United States to receive his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Northwestern and his Ph.D. from Wisconsin.

Dr. Muzumdar is an authority on India and Mahatma Gandhi. Muzumdar became associated with Gandhi when he returned to India in 1929. In 1931, he spent a month in London with the Indian leader.

Lecture on India

Upon his return to the United States, Dr. Muzumdar lectured on behalf of India's freedom movement. Before taking the Cornell College position, Muzumdar taught at William Penn College, Ohio Wesleyan University and the University of Wisconsin.

He is the author of several books. These include "Invitation to Peace," "The United Nations of the World," "Gandhi Triumphant," "Gandhi the Apostle" and "India's Non-Violent Revolution."

Turtle Goes Via Railway Express

Shrdlu is off to Detroit! Press Club members breathed a sigh of relief Monday when the turtle was sent by Railway Express to the national Turtle Trudge in the Motor city on Apr. 22-27.

After three weeks of trials and training, Nurse Beldora Tacke gave the turtle a final and thorough examination before crating it. Whether it will be able to survive the two-day trip to Detroit was unknown. For the trip, the turtle was painted a bright red with Omaha University painted on its shell.

Meanwhile at OU, the defeated turtle, Slugline, was waiting patiently while its fate was being determined. Slugline received a blow when Dr. Leslie Garlough refused to accept and dissect the turtle for his biology classes. Instead Garlough suggested that the turtle be taken to Carter Lake and thrown in.

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette . . . for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike . . .

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The term of office for the present Student Council is almost over. Student Council election will be held Wednesday, Apr. 29. I for one, believe that this year's nominees for the Council should be chosen by their sponsoring organization for ability instead of just popularity. I also believe that the voters in turn should then vote for the most qualified person instead of the one who is most popular. That way, I hope we can elect a Council that will speak for the students; will truly represent their wishes, and will sit in council meetings and speak up; not just sit, listen and obey. I believe that most of the students around OU want an active council; one that will reflect and represent the student's desires. This can only be accomplished by a good turnout at the polls and intelligent voting while there. I believe that a truly representative council would work wonders for over-all school spirit at OU. So let's all turn out at the polls and vote for the most qualified persons, the ones who will do a GOOD job. . . . let's do a good job at the polls so that we can be better represented next year.

One Who Cares.

Dear Editor:

It is just a shame that something can't be done about the parking situation. I do realize that some improvement has been made. However, my gripe, and I'll assure you that there are many others who hold the same opinion, is that the "little policeman" who guards the entrance to the upper parking lot either doesn't have very good eyesight (except when he wants to) or he has a select group of friends whom he gives the privilege of parking in this particular area. There have been numerous occasions on which he has waved his hand at me to move on when I have seen several spaces in the students' lot.

Please let's alter this situation, as we are all paying tuition to have the same privileges.

Angry.
